Edmund Gosse, on reading Hebrews with his father: "Some glimmer of a suspicion iv. 10:11-18 Concluding flourish on Christ's sacrifice that he was sailing on the wrong tack must, D. 10:19-25 Paraenetic application: have faith, hope, and I should suppose, have broken in upon him charity when we had reached the eighth and ninth F IV.10:26-12:13 Exhortation to faithful endurance chapters of Hebrews . . . It is a very noble A. 10:26-38 Paraenetic prelude piece of spiritual casuistry, but it is signally i. 10:26-31 A new warning against failure unfitted for the comprehension of a child." ii. 10:32-38 Recollection of faithful endurance - Father and Son, 1907 B. 11:1-40 An encomium on faith i. 11:1-2 Introductory definition ii. 11:2-7 Faith from creation to Noah iii, 11:8-22 The faith of the patriarchs a. 11:8-12 The faith of Abraham and Sarah G b. 11:13-16 Faith's goal: a heavenly home a.1:1-4 Exordium c. 11:17-22 The faith of Isaac, Jacob, and Joseph 1.1:5-2:18 Christ exalted and humiliated, a suitable High Priest iv. 11:23-30 The faith of Moses and followers A. 1:5-14 Christ exalted above the angels v. 11:31-38 The faith of prophets and martyrs B. 2:1-4 Paraenetic interlude: hold fast vi. 11:39-40 Summary: faith perfected in Christians C. 2:5-18 Christ the Savior, a faithful and merciful High Priest C. 12:1-13 A homily on faithful endurance 11.3:1-5:10 Christ faithful and merciful i. 12:1-3 Jesus, the inaugurator and perfecter of faith's race A. 3:1-4:13 A homily on faith ii. 12:4-6 Citation of scripture i. 3:1-6 Introduction: the faithful Christ and Moses iii. 12:7-11 Suffering as discipline ii. 3:7-11 Citation of scripture: the faithless generation iv. 12:12-13 Brace for the race iii. 3:12-4:11 Exposition H V.12:14-13:21 Concluding exhortations a. 3:12-19 The failure of faithlessness A. 12:14-17 Paraenetic prelude: a final warning against failure b. 4:1-5 The nature of the promised "rest" B. 12:18-29 The serious, but encouraging situation c. 4:6-11 Faithfully enter the rest "today" i. 12:18-24 Not Sinai, but a Heavenly Zion iv. 4:12-13 Concluding flourish: God's powerful Word ii. 12:25-30 An unshakeable kingdom B. 4:14-5:10 Christ the merciful High Priest C. 13:1-21 The life of the covenant i. 4:14-16 Paraenetic prelude: hold fast and approach I i. 13:1-6 Mutual responsibilities ii. 5:1-5 The characteristics of high priests ii. 13:7-19 The implications of Christ's sacrifice iii. 5:6-10 Christ as High Priest "According to the Order of b.13:20-25 Concluding benediction and greetings J Melchizedek" 111.5:11-10:25 The difficult discourse A. 5:11-6:20 Paraenetic prelude i. 5:11---6:3 Progress to "maturity" ii. 6:4-12 Warning and consolation a. 6:4-8 The danger of failure b. 6:9-12 Hopeful assurance INTERPRETATION OF THE BROAD DIVISIONS iii. 6:13-20 God's oath: a sure ground of hope B. 7:1-28 Christ and Melchizedek A. 1:1-2:18 JESUS THE SON i. 7:1-3 Introduction and scriptural citation B. 3:1-4:13 SALVATION ii. 7:4-25 Exposition C. 4:14-6:20 DOCTRINE a. 7:4-10 Melchizedek superior to the Levites (Against the infantile Alpha Christians) b. 7:11-19 The new priest and the new order D. 7:1-28 THE HIGH PRIEST c. 7:20-25 The priesthood confirmed with an oath E. 8:1-9:28 THE COVENANT iii. 7:26-28 Concluding flourish on the eternal High Priest (see the quotation from Gosse, above left) C. 8:1-10:18 An exegetical homily on Christ's sacrificial act i. 8:1-6 Introduction: earthly and heavenly sanctuaries F. 10:1-39 THE LAW ii. 8:7-13 Citation of scripture: a new, interior covenant (Notice 10:22-24, Faith, Hope, Love) iii. 9:1-10:10 Thematic exposition F G. 11:1-39 FAITH a. 9:1-10 The old, earthly sacrifice H. 12:1-29 HOPE (ENDURANCE) b. 9:11-14 The new, heavenly sacrifice LOVE I. 13:1-17 c. 9:15-22 The new covenant and its sacrifice d. 9:23-28 The new, heavenly, unique sacrifice J. 13:18-25 [BENEDICTION]

(Later added personalia; not part of original)

e. 10:1-10 The new, earthly-heavenly sacrifice

В

D