The cover illustration is from a rubbing of a fragment of the Chūn/Chyōu text covering the years 0647-0627, including the death of Chí Hwán-gūng (0620), the first northern leader against the incursions of southern Chǔ. This part of the Hàn Stone Classics was carved in c180 from a calligraphic original by Tsài Yūng 蔡邕 (133-192) and is here adapted from reproductions in 馬衡, 漢石經集存 (1957). The illustrations throughout the book are from the same source.
